INTENSE ARTILLERY FIRE ALONG LINES IN NORTHERN FRANCE

British Big Guns Said to Be Busy on Flanders Front With Little Activity Elsewhere.

German Night Attack Near Rheims Is Broken Up After Foe Reaches French Lines.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Still lacking in large offensive operations the European war fields continue to furnish news of many local activities.

The Germans broke forth into activity northwest of Rheims on the French front last night and in an attack south of the Miette reached the French lines. They were ejected after a sharp fight, Paris announces.

London official statement is particularly colorful but recent communications have mentioned active raiding work and airplane observations in which many photos were taken.

Berlin has dwelt heavily upon the intensity of the artillery ring in Flanders.

The Russians apparently have stopped the forward movement near Riga, in which some ground lost was reclaimed.

The Italian offensive statement merely reports the repulse of further Austrian counter attacks and heavy artillery fire on the Carson plateau.

AGREE UPON NEW POSTAL TAX INCREASE

Newspapers and Periodicals to Face Increased Rates, 'Tis Said—Limit Area of One-cent Rates.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, September 18.—Second class postage taxes in the war tax bill were agreed upon today by the conferees of both houses.

A modified zone plan for increasing rates on newspapers and periodicals was decided upon, according to reliable information which filtered through the orders of secrecy.

None of the conferees would disclose any business transacted. Others in close touch with the question said the conferees had agreed upon a modification of the House zone plan.

Their information was to the effect that a compromise had been reached proposing a limited area in which present one cent a pound rate would be raised, and reducing the graduated zone rate increases.

Assemble in Thousands to See Guardsmen Off

"GOODBY AND GOOD LUCK!"

Proudly they march away amid the plaudits and the tears of kinsfolk and friends. They'll come back in honor and glory, most of them, and those who do not come back will be remembered with love by their country and enshrined in the hearts of those they are leaving behind. Thousands of the home folks gathered in the streets to see the marching away of these national guardsmen, 1951, the largest warbound infantry unit that ever marched through the streets of New York city.

It was decided also to name a special committee to draft a plan of industrial mobilization from a military point of view.

Eduard Dato, the premier, explained these reforms were not undertaken in a militaristic spirit, but were only a part of the reorganization scheme which was one of the features of the government's policy of reform.

THE CHIEF JUSTICE OF ENGLAND HERE ON WAR MISSION

LORD READING

Viscount Reading, lord chief justice of England, arrived in America recently and began a series of conferences with officials having to do with the conduct of the war. He saw Secretary Lansing and Secretary McAdoo and was closeted with members of the British munitions board.

Every thing that could be learned concerning the visit of the lord chief justice indicates that his mission to this country has more importance than was gathered from a statement made in New York that it had to do with finance. Lord Reading will remain in Washington for a considerable length of time and will consult not only officials of the treasury, but those concerned in diplomacy and other activities relating to the war. Lord Reading has taken a house in Washington, which has been leased for a month.

The speech points out that traffic between Holland and her colonies is being hampered in increasing measures.

The proposal would make it contempt of court for any attorney or court attaché to give out any opinions.

MINISTERIAL DECLARATION IS SUBMITTED

Painleve Submits Declaration at Cabinet Meeting This Morning, Setting Forth What Ministry Stands For.

(Associated Press Cable)

Paris, Monday, September 17.—(Delayed)—Premier Painleve drafted a ministerial declaration today and will submit it to his colleagues in the new cabinet tomorrow morning.

The declaration is brief, merely putting in relief the basic principles by which the government will be guided in its conduct of affairs.

In the first place the declaration affirms the resolution of the government to pursue a vigorous policy in the conduct of the war.

The French democracy, it contends, has shown itself worthy of the confidence of its leaders.

While carrying out its policy, the government will endeavor to give the country proper guarantees that justice will be strictly administered.

In this respect it will not allow itself to be influenced by consideration of persons or by any question of social or political position, it is declared. The government's aim being to do justice fully and speedily.

Paris, September 18.—The French ministerial declaration was read by Professor Painleve, the new Premier, in the Chamber of Deputies, this afternoon.

It reaffirms the determination of France to continue the war until the disannexation of Alsace and Lorraine is assured, along with reparation for the damages caused by the Germans.

Alluding to the efforts made by the Germans to weaken the moral forces of the country the declaration says that in cases under investigation and those that may require inquiry, justice will follow its course, without taking any account whatever of personalities involved.

PEACE TERMS NOT THOUGHT OF, 'TIS SAID

German Official Denies That Peace Terms Had Been Indicated to America.

(Associated Press Cable.)

Berlin, Monday, September 17, via London.—The German foreign office, in a statement given to the Associated Press today denies stories appearing in Danish and other newspapers to the effect that the German government has indicated indirectly its peace terms to Washington.

The German foreign office further informed the Associated Press that the rumors were promptly discredited on the strength of the peace terms ascribed to Germany and further by the fact that there was no occasion for Germany to address the Washington government in this respect.

The assertion made by Matthias Erzberger, the clerical leader in the Reichstag that Germany's note in reply to the peace proposals already was on its way to Rome, also was denied in official quarters.

The center leader informed his electors to this effect in the course of two meetings he addressed Sunday.

Most of the men presented themselves as they will go to camp, and most of them were attired for the military training they will undergo until their uniforms are ready.

After presenting themselves at the office, and responding to roll call, the men were given instructions which must be obeyed to the letter, as they are now under military discipline.

Those who desired to spend over night at home were dismissed and those who did not care to return home for the night were provided with quarters in the city, lodging and meal tickets being issued to them.

At 8:55 Wednesday morning the 34 men will depart for the training camp at Chillicothe, and to insure 34 men going, five alternates will be at the station to fill any vacancy that might develop at the last minute.

The train leaves this city over the B. & O. at 8:55 and the men will occupy a coach attached to the regular morning train, and will arrive in camp at ten o'clock Wednesday morning.

TAX DUPLICATE SHOWS GAIN OF $1,770,000.00

Mammoth Gain Chiefly in Personal Property Returns and Due to Self-assessment—Perry Township Gives Surprise at Big Increase.

Virtually the entire tax duplicate for 1917 is now complete, and the total increase in the tax duplicate over that of last year is approximately $1,700,000, and possibly more, as the Public Utilities valuations are not quite complete.

The big gain in the duplicate comes in chattels, or personal property, where the increase over last year was $1,254,740, the total valuation in 1916 being $6,986,270 as compared with $8,241,010 this year.

Perry township is where the surprise was launched in the townships, the increase in that township not reflecting creditably on the assessment work in some of the by-gone years, chattel property alone showing an increase of $98,000 over last year's valuation.

The big increase in personal property is said to be due to the fact that in giving their own returns, citizens in general were more exact than when giving to an assessor where questions were asked and answered, sometimes with suggestions from assessors which did not always bring true values, it is claimed.

The total duplicate this year, with some $2,000 in public utilities not yet reported is $42,480,770, while last year the total duplicate was $42,711,595.

For 1916 real estate was valued at $29,196,700, and this year it was increased to $29,379,410.

Chattels, 1916, $6,986,270 and in 1917, $8,241,010.

Incorporated Companies, 1916, $952,830 and in 1917, $1,126,585.

Banks 1916, $571,555; 1917, $653,515.

Public Utilities, 1916, $3,004,240 and in 1917, $3,080,250.

BROOKS HOLLAND BADLY WOUNDED

Brooks Holland, colored, formerly of this city, and who will be remembered here as the man who shot Patrolman Bell and was himself seriously wounded in a duel on the streets of the city several years ago, is now in the Miami Valley Hospital, Dayton, with pistol wounds through his abdomen and hips, said to have been inflicted by Harry Woodruff, 50, Louisville, Kentucky.

The shooting took place in Miamisburg, south of Dayton, sometime Monday, and is said to have been the result of a quarrel between the two, over some small matter.

Woodruff has been held to the grand jury, his preliminary hearing taking place before Mayor Jensen, in Miamisburg.

CURFEW EFFECTIVE IN JEFFERSONVILLE

Jeffersonville is ahead of Washington in dealing with the boys and girls loitering on the streets after a reasonable hour in the night, according to a man who was in Jeffersonville Monday night, when the curfew bell sounded its warning notes to all boys and girls under 16 years of age.

When the notes of the bell pealed forth the man inquired if the sound was that of a curfew bell, and was informed that it was.

"Just take a look about the streets—do you see any boys and girls?" There were no youngsters in sight.

"Instead of being on the streets or into some mischief, the boys and girls are at home, either in bed or studying their lessons," the man continued.

A curfew has been urged in this city, but the legality of such an ordinance has been questioned by the solicitor.

HOW TO HELP THE BOYS FROM OHIO

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., September 18.—Here's another way to help the "Sam-mies" from Ohio:

Donate your old phonograph or victrola records to the soldiers!

The Ohio Defense Council, acting with the Young Men's Christian Association, sends this plea today to families and dealers throughout the state. Chaplain S. L. Martin, Seventh Ohio Infantry, suggests the idea:

"Soldiers like music, with mighty few exceptions," said Martin. "Nothing dispels gloom and homesickness quicker than a lively tune. Most companies have the machines. Many individual soldiers have them. All they need is records."

"There are thousands of families who have used records they'd be glad to give to the soldiers. Two dealers already have offered to turn over large consignments of shopworn records."

ords. What we don't want, of course, are cracked or damaged records."

Patriotic music lovers who will spare records for Ohio soldiers should follow this plan, according to the State War Board:

Mail or express your records to the State Committee, Young Men's Christian Association, 36 South Third St., Columbus, Ohio. John W. Pontius, acting Y. M. C. A. state secretary, will sort out the records, box up and send them to Y. M. C. A. secretaries at Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio, where Ohio's selective service recruits are training, and to Camp Sheridan, Montgomery, Alabama, where Ohio National Guardsmen are stationed.

WANT GOVERNMENT TO SHOW LIBERALLY

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., September 18.—Half of the money used in the erection of permanent buildings for the use of student air-men at the government aviation school at Ohio State University should be furnished by the federal government. This is the attitude state officials have taken in regard to the proposed construction of new quarters for the aviation students whose numbers are shortly to be increased from 250 to 500.

Trustees of the university have requested that the state emergency board appropriate $176,400 for the buildings but action on the application was postponed until it could be ascertained from the war department whether the government will participate in the expense to the extent of paying half.

President Thompson of the university believes that after the war there will be such a field for aviation that it may be made a department of the university.

Poetry For Today

GIRL I'VE LEFT BEHIND ME.
 I'm lonesome since I crossed the hill,
 And o'er the moor and valley;
 Such heavy thoughts my heart do fill,
 Since parting with my Sally.
 I seek no more the fine and gay,
 For each does but remind me
 How swift the hours did pass away
 With the girl I've left behind me.
 Oh, ne'er shall I forget the night,
 The stars were bright above me,
 And gently lent their silvery light,
 When first she vowed she loved me.
 But now I'm bound to Brighton camp,
 Kind heaven, may favor find me,
 And send me safely back again
 To the girl I've left behind me.
 The bee shall honey taste no more,
 The dove become a ranger.
 The dashing waves shall cease to roar
 E'er she's to me a stranger;
 The vows we've registered above
 Shall ever cheer and bind me
 In constancy to her I love,
 The girl I've left behind me.
 My mind shall still her form retain,
 In sleep or in waking,
 Until I see my love again
 For whom my heart is breaking.
 If ever I should see the day
 When Mars shall have resigned me,
 Forevermore I'll gladly stay
 With the girl I've left behind me.

FAMOUS FRENCH FLYER ACCIDENTALLY KILLED

Paris, September 18.—(Correspondent of The Associated Press).—Captain Roeckel, one of the oldest in service and one of the most remarkable of French military aviators, has just been killed in a flying accident at Villacoublay, after risking death a thousand times over the enemy's lines.
 Captain Roeckel was the creator of the French system of regulating artillery fire from airplanes. Among his exploits was the destruction of half of the artillery of the Sixteenth German army corps in the vicinity of Triancourt, September 8, 1914. This achievement provoked a general note by Marshal Joffre regarding the use of "airplanes of combat."

Two days after his success near Triancourt, Captain Roeckel, flying at a height of 300 yards, discovered the position of a division of Bavarian infantry in the region of Vaux Marie, signalled it to the artillery, then got back to camp with his machine riddled with bullets and shell fragments. When the French infantry advanced and occupied the position, they found 4,800 dead Bavarians on the field, all victims of the French 3-inch field guns.
 Captain Roeckel had won the cross of the legion of honor and the war cross with six palms for as many citations in the orders of the army.

GERMANY'S REGRETS

(By American Press)
 London, Sept. 18.—Expressions of regret over the telegrams sent by Count Von Luxburg, the German minister to Argentina, to Berlin, through the Swedish minister at Buenos Ayres, have been made to both Sweden and Argentina by the German government.
 The undersecretary of the Berlin foreign office has informed the Argentine minister to Berlin that Germany regrets the actions of Count Von Luxburg and disapproves entirely of the expressions used by him in the telegrams made public recently by the state department at Washington. Germany asks for a safe conduct for Count Von Luxburg in order that he may return to Berlin to explain personally.
 Argentina, it is announced by its foreign minister, declines to accept the verbal assurances of an undersecretary of the German foreign office and awaits the arrival of a formal note from Berlin before taking additional steps.
 To Sweden Germany has sent a note, unofficial reports say, regretting highly the disagreeable issues raised by the Luxburg telegrams and thanking the Swedish government for transmitting the messages.

Autumn Days

The Autumn days have come and there is no more beautiful season, among the four into which man has divided the calendar year.

True the vegetation is dying—the trees and all plant life are preparing for the coming winter and while we regret that spring with all its promise and summer with all the fullness of pleasure and luxuriant growth are behind us, yet the beauties of the autumn season with the multi-colored foliage where nature has caught and stored up all the colors of the spring and summer rainbows, permits Jack Frost by a light touch of his fingers to bring them all to view, are full recompense.

The stately corn shocks covering the fields like the tents of army detachments, the abundant harvest bring closer dreams of new corn meal mush, corn bread, nuts, pumpkin pies, turkeys and all the good things of winter, all conspiring to give the autumn season a charm peculiarly its own.

We all have our favorites among the seasons, but the dreamy, hazy days of early fall with prosperity in sight on every hand, with the cool nights about the fire, when hobgoblins are supposed to go abroad after sunset, somehow seem the best of all.

Corn cutting is well begun and the harvest moon, very soon now, will look down upon a scene of plenty such as no harvest moon ever shown upon before.

Woman Farmer and Old Dobbin Form an Effective Combination

READY FOR FALL PLOWING

"Get up, Dobbin!" We'll hear it in feminine accents. And Dobbin will "get up" too, you bet! Behind the lady's voice will be the strong woman's determination to do her bit for her country, even if that bit lies in the plowed field. More and more women are taking the places of men in the nation's industries. The farm is not the last place to feel their influence. The lady in the picture is getting ready for fall plowing.

QUALIFICATIONS OF NATIONAL ARMY MEN BEING ASCERTAINED

Chillicothe, O., Sept. 18.—Expert "system" men, engaged under direction of the War Department from civilian life, have started "checking up" the selective draft army at Camp Sherman to find what the men of the camp are best suited for in military service—if they are college educated in some particular line of work, if they are bakers, clerks, bookkeepers, carpenters, plumbers, steam fitters—and it will not be long before every man will be catalogued in a card index system as to just what his abilities are.

This will provide a reference to which officers can go when a carpenter or a bunch of carpenters are needed, etc. It will make possible the selection of certain men of certain trades to serve in the capacity of tradesmen of the army instead of just soldiers.

For instance, each regiment may need a carpenter, or several of them, to keep barracks repaired and do odd jobs. Fellows of experience in this work can be quickly located through the index records. Some may find "regular jobs" at their chosen work instead of being required to serve as privates. The records will be maintained for permanent future use, in the camp or wherever duty may call the units now being assembled.

Clear, white clothes are proof that the housekeeper uses Red Cross Ball Blue. All grocers.

BELL WILL WELCOME SELECTED

(By American Press)

Chillicothe, O., Sept. 18.—Details for receiving Ohio boys in the big military camp here this week have been completed. Lieutenant Colonel J. E. Bell will direct the work. All men except stragglers will be detained at the camp instead of at the Chillicothe station. Officers expect, 3,877 men Wednesday, 3,658 Thursday, 5,581 Friday, 947 Saturday and 1,450 Sunday. Differing from the handling of the first contingent of 5 per cent the new men will go direct to their permanent quarters before getting superficial throat and mouth examination. The only delay in getting them there will be in "checking up" to see that the quotas are complete.

Immediately on reaching camp the various phases of medical examination will be started, leading to the court of last resort, the test by experts of the army to see that each man is in every way up to physical requirements for military service. This board will pass finally on each individual doubtful case, recommending discharge if necessary.

Those passed as ready for service will be mustered in under direction of Lieutenant Colonel Watts, mustering officer. Then the life of a soldier will actually be started by the selective draft men.

Company B, Third Ohio Infantry, of Springfield which has been quarantined because of a case of typhoid fever, has been released. No cases of typhoid have developed since the drafted men arrived.

CABARET OUSTED DANCE HALL IS POPULAR PLACE

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., September 18.—The passing of Chillicothe's lone cabaret, resulting from operation of strict military regulations against sale of liquor outside of licensed barrooms, has brought a new entertainment for officers.

The cabaret has been turned into a dance hall. Dances for officers, their wives and friends will be given each Wednesday and Saturday night. Only officers in uniform will be admitted to the floor. The orchestra that once served to cheer the cabaret crowds will furnish music for the taperscore.

For the enlisted men and the skilled workmen of Camp Sherman, two fraternal organizations now are conducting nightly dances. An officer is seldom seen at these dances.

Selective draft men who are Catholics and who belong to the Knights of Columbus will have three buildings within the camp for regular places of worship as well as for meeting places. One of these buildings has been completed and the two others are to be finished soon. They are to be painted a golden brown, contrasting with the Y. M. C. A. buildings painted green with white trimmings.

Officers were assigned to the quartermaster's department of the Eighty-Third division here this week. Most of them are Ohioans trained at Fort Benjamin Harrison, the chief officers being regular army men.

JUDGE D. C. BADGER LOSES LEFT HAND

Mrs. J. A. Tway, of this county, received word Sunday of a serious accident which befell her brother, Judge D. C. Badger, of Columbus, who lost his left hand while hunting on his farm a few miles from Danville, in Madison county, the accident taking place late Saturday evening.

Judge Badger, who is well known in this city and county, and has many relatives here, lost his left hand at the wrist when both barrels of a shot gun were discharged.

Timely assistance given by three friends who accompanied him on the hunting trip undoubtedly saved his life. They reached his side soon after the accident occurred and by speedily administering first aid treatment stopped the loss of blood. They then placed him in an automobile and drove him to Mt. Carmel Hospital, Columbus covering the distance of 43 miles in an hour and one minute.

An operation was at once performed the shattered bones being amputated just above the wrist. Judge Badger withstood the operation and shock as well as could be expected, and was reported by the hospital authorities to be in favorable condition.

While he was after a squirrel, the gun became entangled in a wire fence and both barrels were discharged.

The judge was accompanied on the hunting trip by Lawrence Porter, Millar Buttle and Orr H. Williams. He was using a borrowed 20-gauge gun, with which he was not familiar, and this it is believed, was a contributing factor to the accident.
